INFORMATION ABOUT RED CROSS

Inspired by the narration of experience of war of Solferino by Henry Dunant the Red Cross Organization was formed in the year 1864. The first Geneva Convention has adopted Red Cross and its emblem for the amelioration of conditions of wounded in the battle field. The nucleus of Indian Red Cross Society which is a part of the International movement was formed in the year 1920, though an Act of Parliament (Act XV of 1920).

The Diu District Branch came into existence in the year The Hon'ble Administrator is its President and Secretary (Finance) is the Chairman.

Red Cross provides assistance to victims of War, Natural Calamities, Disasters and Epidemics, without discrimination of race, religion, creed, nationality, political opinions. In addition to its relief activities in emergencies, it promotes and undertakes activities of development and prevention of ill health, disease and preparedness of disasters during peacetime.

Any individual can help this international humanitarian effort by donation in cash or kind, and by enrolling as a member (except No.7) and serving voluntarily in any of its activities, on submission of valid ID and residential proof.
